On October 23, 1958, [REDACTED] furnished information concerning a meeting of Temple number 7 of the NOI in New York which was held October 19, 1958. At this meeting [REDACTED] stated Minister MALCOLM X spoke and among other things referred to his recent trip to Savannah. b7D

At St. Louis, Missouri

On January 6, 1959, [REDACTED] furnished information concerning a NOI meeting held January 4, 1959, at 4525 Olive Street. [REDACTED] stated MALCOLM X spoke as follows: b7D

As long as they were wearing the slavemaster's name ^{and} the slavemaster was calling them Negroes, they would still be as boys, and in order to grow up they must give back their slavemaster's name, give back his religion and return to their own. Under the present educational system it had probably never occurred to these people to get their independence from their slavemaster's children and they had probably never considered seeking some of this good earth for their own people who numbered over 17 million in America. Now these people have a man who will stand face to face with the slavemasters and tell the slavemasters what he wants for his people, and that man is ELIJAH MUHAMMAD.
