

NY 105-8999

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

[REDACTED] on August 10, 1962, that on that date, at 10:15 p.m., the subject spoke on KMOX-TV St. Louis, Missouri. The nature of the subject matter and the speech was not indicated. 670

The August 18, 1962, edition of the "New York Amsterdam News" contained an article which reflected that the radio program "Controversy" over WWRL, New York, New York, for August 16, 1962, contained a discussion on "The Angry Negroes" and that subject was one of the guests.

[REDACTED] that subject had informed ELIJAH MUHAMMAD that he would cancel all of his remaining appearances at colleges since ELIJAH MUHAMMAD felt that these appearances gained them no converts and only provided an opportunity for the NOI to be "blasted" in public. 679

The September 20, 1962, edition of the "Bridgeport Post", a daily newspaper published in Bridgeport, Connecticut, contained an article which reflected that subject would be unable to appear at his scheduled lecture on October 2, 1962, at the University of Bridgeport. The article indicated that the subject had informed University officials that throat trouble forced him to cancel all his college and university appearances during the next few months.

B. Affiliation with the Englewood, New Jersey Racial Situation

The August 5, 1962, edition of the "New York Times", a daily newspaper published in New York, New York, contained an article which reflected that Attorney PAUL B. ZUBER, a New York integrationist leader, had announced on August 4, 1962, that he had invited New York's black Muslim leader, MALCOLM "X" to attend an anti-segregation rally at Englewood, New Jersey, on August 18, 1962. The article further quoted ZUBER as claiming that he would organize boycotts and pickets and turn "this town into an Albany, Georgia".

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

NY 105-8999

The August 6, 1962, edition of the "New York Times" contained an article which reflected that subject accepted PAUL ZUBER's invitation to attend an anti-segregation rally in Englewood, New Jersey, on August 18, 1962, and that subject indicated he was going "for the sole purpose of showing Negroes the hypocrisy of the whites in Englewood".

The August 7, 1962, edition of the "New York Post", a daily newspaper published in New York, New York, contained an article which reflected that the invitation to the subject to attend a rally in Englewood, New Jersey to protest segregation had split the Negro leadership of the Englewood movement. The article indicated that three Negro clergymen had urged their parishioners to boycott the August 18th rally because subject is a "advocate of hate" and a "rabble rouser".

The August 8, 1962, edition of the "New York Times" contained an article which reflected that the subject had announced that he would not attend the August 18th rally at Englewood, New Jersey, declaring that the "narrow-mindedness" of some of the Negro clergy made it impossible for them to work in a united front, and unwilling to contribute to the disunity of a Negro community, the Muslims would not become involved where they are not welcome.

C. Affiliation and Association with the Communist Movement

The April 29, 1962, edition of "The Worker", an East coast Communist newspaper, on page 10, column 5, under article captioned "What's On" advertised a symposium on "The Challenge of Racism" which was to be held on May 1, 1962, at Palm Gardens, 305 West 52nd Street, New York City, and that the subject was to be one of several speakers.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~